Members of catalyst teams in the areas of education, healthcare and employment engaged local leaders to form a community visioning team called the Ozark Mountain Legacy Initiative.

The group met today to identify the core values of our local communities as they "move together toward a preferred future."

The goal of the visioning process is to gather input from area stakeholders and identify an overall Ozark Mountain Legacy as well as unique legacies for each participating community.

The session was held at the Grand Plaza Hotel in Branson. The city of Branson was represented well. Here's Mayor Raeanne Presley...
